FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BEN DEWAARD JOINS PROFESSIONAL STAFF AT LINCOLN ORTHOPEDIC PHYSICAL THERAPY

Lincoln Orthopedic Physical Therapy (LOPT) announced this week, the addition of Ben DeWaard, MSPT, to the company's team of physical therapists. Mr. DeWaard is a graduate of Clarke College in Dubuque, Iowa where he received a Masters degree in physical therapy. Mr. DeWaard pursued a career in physical therapy, "Because I have always had a desire to help people," DeWaard said. "Physical therapy provides me with the opportunity to help patients regain a part of their life and to help them develop healthful habits that could prevent future problems," he added.

Mr. DeWaard, joins the LOPT professional staff with ten years of professional training and physical therapy work experience. His strong relationships with Lincoln-area medical professionals enables him to work directly with each patient and doctor to provide the best treatment and outcome for his clients. DeWaard's professional expertise provides a full compliment of physical therapy resources with specialization in the areas of lower back, chronic pain, and cervical neck pain.

Lincoln Orthopedic Physical Therapy is Lincoln's largest free standing, out-patient physical therapy clinic specializing in orthopedic problems. Founded in 1982, the organization has three full service clinical locations to serve the Lincoln area. LOPT offers a complete array of rehabilitation and therapy services provided by eight licensed physical therapists, two certified in manual therapy, one occupational therapist, and access to clinical psychologists. LOPT is affiliated with all major medical providers and provides extended office hours from 7:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Monday through Friday.
